EXPECT FLOUR TO COST $12 BARREL

Rock Island County Bakers Consider Prices of Materials Again and Can See No Reduction Ahead.

ARRANGE ADVERTISING PLAN

Association Gives Further Consideration of Project to Place Its Argument Before Public.

There will be no reduction in the price of bakery goods. Bakers of Rock Island county, at a meeting held last night, considered the soaring price of flour and arrived at the conclusion that from all present indications materials would continue to increase until next spring.

Flour selling now between $8 and $9 a barrel advanced 20 cents a barrel between Saturday and yesterday, an officer of the bakers' association of Rock Island, Moline, East Moline and Silvis said today. "By spring it is figured that flour will sell at $12 a barrel. We couldn't see how there would be any reduction from the present price of bakery goods with materials which enter into baking climbing."

It was stated at the meeting by various of the members present that the consumers have offered no great protests to the 10-cent loaf, which is now practically the only size sold in the county. New prices have been in effect for 10 days.

Much of the time during which the bakers were in session was devoted to consideration of the advertising project which is to be undertaken by the association to educate the public to the advantages in purchasing the dime loaf. It is planned to have a series of nine display ads, one to appear in the newspapers each week. Two of these ads have appeared. The bakers will endeavor to put squarely before the public the reasons for the increase in prices and will make an effort to show that the increasing cost of materials make it absolutely necessary that bakery goods advance in order to assure continuation of the bakery business in the county.

Helpful Confession

Mrs. B. writes: "Had suffered for years with stomach disorder. Could not eat without great distress, lost weight and was run down. Feared it was ulcerated stomach. Fortunately I secured a sample of HEMO, which seemed to satisfy my hunger, and was retained without distress. I immediately bought a package and started to take it regularly. I continued to take it once a day and improved steadily. After one year I have gained 33 pounds of good solid flesh and can eat any food with no distress. I can recommend HEMO to all sufferers from stomach or digestive disorders."

Makes a delicious food drink by simply adding water. We suggest that you try a 50c package with our guarantee of satisfaction. A. J. Riess, Druggist, Rock Island.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am 18 years old. A short time ago I had a proposal from a young man and I thought I did not love him and so I turned him down. He started to go with another girl and now his engagement to her has been announced. I did not know how much I cared for him until I learned that he was going to marry some one else. Now I know that I do love him enough to marry him and that I just didn't appreciate him before. He loved me so much that I have reason to think he is only marrying this other girl for a home. Do you think it would be all right to write him a letter and tell him that I realize now that I care for him? I cannot bear to have him marry some one else.

THANK YOU. You do not love the man. You only think you do now that it is practically impossible to have him. Of course you shouldn't write the letter. If he loved you very much he would have waited until you were older and tried to make you love him. Forget him, girlie, and let him be happy with the other girl.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am 14 years old. My boy friend has asked

WHY WOMEN WRITE LETTERS

To Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

Women who are well often ask "Are the letters which the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. is continually publishing, genuine?" "Are they truthful?" "Why do women write such letters?"

In answer we say that never have we published a fictitious letter or name. Never, knowingly, have we published an untruthful letter, or one without the full and written consent of the woman who wrote it.

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and suffering.

It has relieved women from some of the worst forms of female ills, from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, nervousness, weakness, stomach troubles and from the blues.

It is impossible for any woman who is well and who has never suffered to realize how these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; their keen desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.

me to a party at his house. It is going to be at 7:30 at night. Would it be proper for me to go? (2) I have a summer white dress and a blue silk winter dress. Which should I wear? (3) The boys at school tease me about my boy friend. What can I do to make them stop? BETTY. (1) It will be all right to go. Have your father take you and call for you when it is time to go home. (2) If the evening is warm, wear your summer dress, and if it is cold wear your winter dress. (3) Let the boys tease and pretend you don't care. You can't make them stop. In time if they see you aren't annoyed they will get tired of teasing and stop of their own accord.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a very stout girl. Will you kindly tell me something I can eat for about a week or ten days and what time to go to bed, etc? I THANK YOU.

You cannot reduce in a week or ten days. You will have to diet and exercise indefinitely to keep down your weight. Some people find mere abstinence from potatoes and bread will bring about a reduction. The following is an excellent diet list:

You may eat: Oysters, lobsters, soup of any kind without flour or fat thickening. Fish—Fried, salt or smoked of any kind cooked without fat or butter. Lean meats—No ham, liver or pork. Eggs—Any style, poached, shirred, omelet or dropped. Game—Poultry, chicken, duck turkey, etc. Vegetables—Tomatoes, turnips, squash, carrots, string beans, onions, cabbage, peas, cauliflower, asparagus, salads, celery, watercress, pickles of any kind. Bread made of gluten. Coffee and tea. Water in any quantity should be taken except with meals. Milk sparingly. May not eat: Sugar and all substances containing sugar (sweet cakes, ice cream, jellies, preserved fruits, etc.) All fatty substances, oils, sardines, butter, cream, gravies. White bread, oatmeal and rice, potatoes and all foods containing starch. Never lie down after meals. Naps in the daytime and more than eight hours a night sleep would be fattening. Exercise all you can.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I used to go with a boy and lately he has stopped coming to see me. He borrowed one of my books that I would like to get back. It has been three months since he has gone with me very much and over a month since I have seen him. How can I get him to return the book?

THANK YOU.

Write him a note and tell him that you value the book and would like to have him return it. He has probably forgotten about it.

THE bath which follows strenuous exercise is the most thorough test of any soap. Then the pores are wide open and the skin is sore and chafed from perspiration.

If the soap contains "free" alkali or strong ingredients of any kind it cannot help but smart, burn and irritate. Nothing but pure, high grade soap can give satisfaction at such a time.

Ivory Soap has been in general use for years at the leading colleges and athletic clubs. Its freedom from alkali, its mildness its purity and its extremely high grade of materials are beyond question.
